IT HAPPENED

The Strawberry Social, on June 14 was very enjoyable. Many people partook of the shortcake -which was DELISH - and much interest was shown in the artifacts and research material that was displayed.

The Victorian Tea, July 26, was a success and created interest in our grandparents style of living. Thanks to Marge Frame, Lucy Houser, Elizabeth Kuhlman, Sarah McGee, Sally Motz, Nola Strimpert, Jean Williamson and Elsie Smalley for displaying their goodies and meeting and talking to visitors.

COUNTRY STORE - 1980

The following is a review to let you know where we are, at this time, with the Country Store.

Generally, it is shaping up very well. But there is still much to be done. We can use your help.

The BAKERY has a disconcerting way of being sold out in two or three hours. If we could just have more breads, cakes, pies and cookies than we have been getting. That means we need more bakers to make these good things. Most ingredients for your baking can be readily supplied. Just say what you need.

Call, Edith McCabe, 231-5965 - Alice Canter, 231-5801

COBWEB CORNER can always use more of your nice throw-aways. If you have things for Cobweb, but no way of getting them in, someone will come and pick them up.

Call, Bob-Marie Anderson, 231-8822 - Erv-Marg Groppenbecher, 231-7631

DRIED MATERIAL. This department needs volunteers to gather plants and grasses, to help with stripping and sorting of the material already gathered. You might like to give a hand with making the lovely flower and cone wreaths that are so much admired. If you would like to do dried arrangements, this is the place for you. There is a fine variety of materials to work with and attractive containers to make your arrangements look even prettier.

Call, Peggy Duckett, 232-2955 - Hi Schick, 231-1842

FARMERS MARKET. Since, like the bakery, so much of what this department handles must come in at the last minute, let's not forget it in the hurry of last minute things. To make this one of the most colorful and eye-catching departments in Country Store, we should have fruits and vegetables, flowers and plants, ornamental gourds and Indian corn, jars of honey --- nothing states better the time of year than this bright spot.

Call, Fred-Eloise Heis, 231-6859 - Cliff-Jane Reeder, 231-7008

JAMS AND JELLIES. Jam and jelly makers are needed here, but even more than this we need something to make jams and jellies of. Do you have some extra grapes, apples, crabapples, blackberry juice, etc? There is no problem with a surplus in this department, since anything not sold at Country Store can go to Christmas Open House.

Call, Mary McClughen, 231-9486 - Mildred Lucas, 231-4849

STITCHERY. Is coming along fine. In order to get a close summing up of exactly where the work is, all kits and any original pieces should be turned in by September 3. It might be convenient to bring your project to the September meeting; if not, then get it to Bernice or Katie.

Call, Bernice Dunham, 231-7885 - Katie Richard, 232-8810

STUFFED TOYS. Has received some cute donations from members. All handmade stuffed toys are appreciated. Phyllis says workers will be needed the weekend of the sale.

Call, Phyllis Young, 232-6727

WOODWORK SHOP. We always need more items in this department, too. Would those of you - man or woman - who know how to bring things out of wood please come forward and help Willard make this section as outstanding as it could be. There is wood available.

Call, Willard Kuhlman, 231-0575

We very much need help the week preceding Country Store to get the buildings and grounds in good shape, and equipment set up for the various departments.

Call, Vic Frame, 231-6453 - Red Lowery, 231-5169

On the weekend of Country Store, September 20-21, most departments will need extra help with selling. There are other kinds of work to be done as well. Those of you who wish to help, please call one of the chairpersons given above and make your preference known, so that a schedule can be made for the weekend. That way we will know who is doing what, when and where. Here are other numbers to call about working or for questions about anything mentioned here.

Ruth Clark, Chairman, 231-6456 - Barbara Christman, 232-1299

Luella Copp, 231-7235

We deeply appreciate the good, hard work that has been done to bring Country Store to this satisfactory point. With more help from our members in these last few remaining weeks we should have a very successful Country Store, 1980

A word from Edwina Rees, our Contact Chairman: COUNTRY STORE requires that we communicate; so let the Department Chairmen know what you are doing or plan to do to help this year. We will be in touch with you soon.

The LOG HOUSE COOKBOOK is here!

Its first showing will be at the September 3 meeting. Members attending the meeting may buy their copies at that time. Our very nice, all purpose cookbook of tested recipes will sell for $4.50. We think you will find this book both worthwhile and attractive as gifts.

A HOT ITEM

In October, the new Cincinnati Fire Museum will be officially opened. An introductory movie, "Fire! Fire!" will be shown every half hour, and residents of Mt. Washington and Anderson township should be very interested. Three sites in the area are used for settings, one of them being our Log House. The crew of Intermedia Associates started working at the House at 9 am and finished at midnight on August 5. A thank you to Albert Shoop for staying up until the film crew finished and seeing that the House was secure for the night.
